North Lawrence VFD To Mark 69th Service Year

■ Bingo adds computer play in April

The North Lawrence Volunteer Fire Department celebrates its 69th Anniversary this summer and their history is a great story worth telling.

It was after a house fire in North Lawrence, the business owners and residents met and started the Fire Department in 1956. At that time, they raised enough money to buy a used 1937 Ford fire engine and a used gasoline tanker which they converted to a water tanker. In the 60's they bought a used Packard ambulance to serve as part of the Fire Department.

Since then they have been (See North Lawrence on page 8)

Firefighters Rec Club Welcomes Spring Season

■ The weather's better, so get out and play!

As our Bingo History Book shows us, once we hit Springtime bingo begins a gradual downturn towards what we call the "Summer Slows".

But that's not always the case with some games and especially not with the Mansfield

Firefighters Rec Club Bingo. They had a darn good Winter season and it's looking like a good Spring season is on the way.

Being one of the oldest established games in the North Central Ohio area, "Fireman's (See Fireman's Bingo on page 8)

Triple Jackpot Keno Stays Strong At W.C.H.S. Bingo

■ Popular ticket is still a hit!

You can see the winner's photos gracing the pages of this paper every month. The jackpots might not be huge compared to some of the mega progressives, but they are consistent. Just ask yourself - do you want to keep spending money on a big payout long-shot or buy a ticket with a great chance to win?

The good news that this smart money ticket is a favorite at the Wyandot County Humane Society game in Upper Sandusky.

The Triple Jackpot Keno (See W.C.H.S. Tickets on page 8)

$10,000 Blazing 7's winner at W.C.H.S. Bingo! A well earned congratulations go to Amy Saum for her huge $10,000 payout from a Blazing 7's winning ticket at Wyandot County Humane Society Bingo. The BIG Blazing 7's game still has one each of the $20,000, $10,000 and $5,000 winning tickets left with hundreds of $100 and $500 winners still to be hit. It's a great time to take a drive to the W.C.H.S. Hall. You'll enjoy a great night of bingo in Upper and maybe go home with a big win just like Amy. Their ad is on page 27.

"Small Town Bingo" Found At Whitehall VFW Hall

■ Hidden Gem in the Big City!!!

The local Whitehall Memorial VFW (Veterans of Foreign Wars) Post 8794, located at 4100 East Main Street, Whitehall, has hosted their bingo game since September 2019. At the time, several games in the area had closed and the VFW Post saw it as an opportunity to provide a fun place for those area Bingo players who still wanted to play.

Their Bingo is unique because they raise funds to support the local Veterans Relief Fund, VFWOC, and other Veteran and Local Charities. It's what they are about; giving back to their community and supporting Veterans. As a non-profit Veteran organization any profit at the door is 100% paid out.

This creates a tier system for payouts. The more people that play, the bigger the payouts. 25% of the pull tab revenue goes to Veterans of For- (See Small Town Bingo on page 8)

This No-Knead Bread Recipe Is Great for Busy Families on a Budget

Get rolling in the dough with this amazing no-knead recipe that bakes up to four 1-pound loaves of tasty artisan bread for around $2. I'm not kidding — less than $1 a loaf! It's not only easy on your budget but also quick and effortless to prepare, as authors Jeff Hertzberg and Zoe Francois describe in their best-selling book that created a buzz far and wide: Artisan Bread in Five Minutes a Day.
When I stopped by Zoe's kitchen, her active sons were home from school, shaping dough for their own pizzas. "Inventing nutritious recipes and eating together are important to our family," said Zoe. "When kids get involved in cooking and baking healthy foods, they'll eat what they make."
For the master bread recipe, let kids loose to measure flour, salt, water and yeast in a bucket. They'll love stirring up the concoction with a wooden spoon and their hands. Let it rise, and you're ready to bake bread for up to two weeks. You can even adapt the recipe for sweet breads, flatbreads and pizza.

Give it a try and discover the fun of rolling in the dough! Here's what you'll need:

- 3 cups lukewarm water
- 1 1/2 tablespoons granulated yeast
- 1 1/2 tablespoons kosher salt
- 6 1/2 cups unbleached all-purpose flour

Mix together ingredients in a 5-quart food-grade lidded bucket or container. Cover loosely, let rise at room temperature for about 2 hours, then refrigerate for up to two weeks. Bake some of the dough now, if you wish.

To prepare a loaf, cut off a grapefruit-sized piece of dough, sprinkle flour on it, and briefly shape it into a ball with flour-covered hands. Allow it to rest for 40 minutes on a pizza peel or a wooden board covered with parchment paper (or sprinkled with cornmeal).

Twenty minutes before baking, preheat oven to 450 F. Then set a baking stone on a rack in the center of the oven and an empty broiler tray on the lower rack. When ready to bake, dust the top of the loaf with flour. An adult should make a 1/4-inch-deep crisscross slash on top with a sharp knife and slide the dough onto the baking stone. Pour a cup of hot water into the broiler pan before closing the oven door.

Bake for 30 minutes, or until crust is browned. Let cool. Slice and serve.

LET'S GET COOKING!

by Annie E. Ennis

Winging It

Dear Annie,
We are having a big party and I want to serve chicken wings. Can you make some suggestions for recipes? Thank you.
Marilyn D from The Villages, Florida

Dear Marilyn,
I love chicken wings. Here are three of my favorite recipes. If you are serving a big crowd, prepare all three recipes. —Annie

SWEET AS CAN BE WINGS

- 3 lbs. chicken wings
- ½ c. honey
- ¼ c. soy sauce
- 4 T. brown sugar
- 1 clove garlic, crushed
- ¼ cup catsup
- Salt, to taste
- Pepper, to taste
- Paprika

Preheat the oven to 350 degrees. Line a shallow baking pan with aluminum foil.

Place the chicken in the pan. Sprinkle with salt, pepper and paprika. In a medium mixing bowl, combine the honey, soy sauce, brown sugar and catsup. Pour over the chicken wings. Bake for 35 to 45 minutes. Test for doneness. Makes 18 servings.

BUFFALO CHICKEN

- 3 T. fat-free margarine
- 2 T. hot pepper sauce, or more to taste
- 1 tsp. canola oil
- 3 lbs. chicken wings
- ¼ tsp. salt
- 1/8 tsp. freshly ground black pepper
- 3 celery stalks, cut into 24 (1-inch) pieces
- Blue Cheese dressing

Melt margarine in a medium nonstick saucepan. Whisk in pepper sauce and cook for 1 to 2 minutes, or until slightly thickened; set aside. Heat oil in a large nonstick skillet over medium-high heat. Season chicken with salt and pepper, add to pan, and cook, turning occasionally, until browned on all sides, about 6 minutes. Add margarine mixture to pan and gently toss chicken until well coated, 1 to 2 minutes. Serve with celery pieces and blue cheese dressing. Serves 18.

FIVE SPICE CHICKEN WINGS

- 2 scallions, chopped
- ½ cup soy sauce
- ½ cup dry sherry
- ¼ cup brown sugar
- 2 tsp. Chinese 5-spice seasoning
- 1 tsp. sesame oil
- 4 lbs. chicken wings

Using a large heavy saucepan, combine all of the above ingredients except the chicken. Bring to a boil for a medium heat. Add the chicken and simmer. Stir constantly. Cook for 30 minutes with a lid on the saucepan. You can find the seasoning in an Oriental grocery, if not available in your regular grocery store. Serves 12.

Don't Fall for Medicare Scams

Medicare card scams are on the rise. During one calendar year, Medicare had over $100 billion in fraudulent claims, and the damage cost goes up when identity theft and stolen financial information are added in.

What the Medicare thieves want is your card number, and they'll try any number of tricks to get you to reveal it.

Scammers might contact you to offer you a "cheaper" Medicare but will need your personal information to sign you up.

They might impersonate a Medicare employee and say that your card is about to expire and you need a new one. They'll ask for your current card number and your personal information to verify it's really you. (Wrong: Medicare cards don't expire.)

Scammers might call and say that your Medicare benefits have been canceled, but claim they can help you get the benefits reinstated if you give them your personal information or even a fee.

(Wrong: Medicare won't communicate with you that way, and if they need to contact you, it will be by mail.)

Thieves might try to claim that your old paper card isn't good now and that you need a new one with a chip in it, like a credit card. (Wrong: Medicare cards are only made of paper.)

They might offer you a refund of some type or something free, or you might be offered genetic testing. All you need to do, they'll say, is give them your Medicare card number ... and your bank information for the refund.

Whether you're contacted by phone, email or text message, don't give out your Medicare card number or any of your personal or financial information.

As usual, if you suspect you have a scammer on the phone, hang up immediately. If you believe it was an attempt at a Medicare scam, call 800-MEDICARE (800-633-4227) to report it.

Escapee Bingo Ball

Dear Aunt Bingo,

An unfortunate situation occurred at a local Bingo hall. At the beginning of each Bingo session, all 75 Bingo balls are placed on a tray and verified by both a player and worker, making sure no balls are missing or cracked. Once checked, the balls are dumped in the machine hopper.

After 40 games and 3 and a half hours of Bingo playing, a few players noted that O-71 had not been called even once all night long. Curious, we went up to the call stand and asked to see all 75 balls.

Sure enough, O-71 was missing, later to be found on the floor under the call stand! Apparently when the tray of Bingo balls was emptied into the machine, O-71 didn't quite make it into the hopper.

One Bingo player who needed O-71 for a $1,199 Blackout was livid, demanding to be paid for a Blackout she had no chance of winning due to the missing O-71. The manager refused to pay her $1,199 and offered this explanation:

"If we pay you, then we would have to pay everyone who needed O-71 for a Bingo or Blackout this evening."

"There is no guarantee that O-71 would have been one of the 58 numbers called during the Blackout game."

Knowing this Bingo number missing was just an accident, how should the manager have dealt with it? Give everyone who played a refund?

How would you react if you found out a Bingo number you needed for a large payout wasn't in the machine, but rather on the floor under the call stand?

—Jim Metzger, Portland, Oregon

Dear Jim,

That's an easy question to answer: If I had been waiting for that O-71, I would be furious! And I would want those two dopes who didn't see the ball falling to the floor to pay me!!!

There. Now that I have finished my rant, I will address the rest of your story.

My closest experience to this was a Bingo session at a local community center where a particular ball also did not come up. About three-quarters of the way through the session a sharp-eyed player saw that a ball was stuck in the corner of the blower. When it was jiggled loose it was revealed to be the "missing" ball.

After that, all hell broke loose. Losers were furious, winners were afraid they might lose their winnings—it was not a pretty scene. The hall manager finally announced that anyone was welcome to a refund due to the technical error. The majority of players took their money and walked...including two people who had won jackpots!

To me, a refund is the only fair way to deal with the situation. The mistake was not intentional, and the manager was right—there was no guarantee the number would have come up for the angry winner. But the number of balls was wrong, so the entire session is a forfeit. —Aunt Bingo

Even Exchange by Donna Pettman

Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you exchange the A from MASTER for an I, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters.

Horoscopes for April 2025

ARIES (MAR 21-APR 20): With your ruler moving through Cancer, you’ve entered an intense phase of change. Prepare to shed old identities that no longer serve your well-being. Let them drop away without fuss. Discipline applied to any project or pastime will pay off big time now.
Lucky Days: 7 - 29
Lucky Numbers: 8 - 19

TAURUS (APR 21-MAY 21): With spring in the air, April is an excellent month to take a short journey to free your mind from troubles or pressures. Bulls benefit when they get outside and settle into nature. This revitalizes all aspects of your character. No other sign is as closely aligned to the Earth as yours.
Lucky Days: 9 - 11
Lucky Numbers: 3 - 44

GEMINI (MAY 22-JUN 21): You’re contemplating life’s big questions now, and you’ll benefit by finding someone to assist you with your desire to know and understand more. Don’t shy away from aligning with a teacher or instructor who can guide you into new paths of inner illumination.
Lucky Days: 23 - 27
Lucky Numbers: 28 - 50

CANCER (JUN 22-JUL 22): You’re like an oven with its temperature set permanently to high this month. There is so much baking going on; you need to schedule some timeouts so you don’t burn out this month. The full Moon on the 12th allows you to leave a relationship that doesn’t serve you.
Lucky Days: 7 - 11
Lucky Numbers: 4 - 25

LEO (JUL 23-AUG 23): Ask yourself where you should focus your time and attention. Facts and truths are essential to acknowledge now. This might require taking some time away from fantasizing and dreaming and making firm declarations about where you’re headed and how you are getting there.
Lucky Days: 3 - 11
Lucky Numbers: 29 - 49

VIRGO (AUG 24-SEP 23): With so many planets in your opposite sign now, you might feel like the odd man out. But don’t let this period of high tension dull your spirits. You are being given a crash course in how to mature gracefully. Honor the skills you’ve developed. Use them.
Lucky Days: 6 - 18
Lucky Numbers: 33 - 39

LIBRA (SEP 24-OCT 23): The full Moon in your sign on the 12th initiates a series of abrupt revelations regarding your social life. You are looking to spend more quality time with fewer individuals. You’re an excellent negotiator. Find ways to skillfully ask for what you wish to receive from others.
Lucky Days: 5 - 12
Lucky Numbers: 3 - 49

SCORPIO (OCT 24-NOV 22): Modern culture puts undo pressure on being positive. But sometimes, you need to allow yourself to complain and be dissatisfied. This is a great month to acknowledge disappointment and turn irritation into inspiration. Don’t pull punches.

Lucky Days: 1 - 11
Lucky Numbers: 33 - 52

SAGITTARIUS (NOV 23-DEC 21): Find ways to express your unconventional nature. Your untethered side must be allowed to roam free this month. Remember, half of your zodiac symbol is a horse! The full Moon on the 12th will enable you to turn your poetic perspective into a reality.
Lucky Days: 7 - 9
Lucky Numbers: 21 - 50

CAPRICORN (DEC 22-JAN 20): Explore what irritates you most this month. It doesn’t serve you to keep a lid on your frustration. It’s not good for your health. The full Moon on the 12th puts your work relationships under the spotlight. You may need to confront a colleague who isn’t giving credit where it is due.
Lucky Days: 4 - 8
Lucky Numbers: 33 - 46

AQUARIUS (JAN 21-FEB 19): If you are frustrated now, it is most likely related to out-of-whack power dynamics. You prefer your independence, but sometimes, to get the results you desire, you’ll need to commit firmly to a strict schedule that promotes getting results.
Lucky Days: 4 - 17
Lucky Numbers: 6 - 35

PISCES (FEB 20-MAR 20): Inspiration is heightened by those in your close circle who openly acknowledge your gifts. There’s nothing like appreciation to settle the heart and foster a sense of security in a crazy world. Let others know how much you care, as well.
Lucky Days: 18 - 25
Lucky Numbers: 33 - 39

providing most of their funding by running Bingo. Today they have multiple firemen on duty each day with one or more being a Paramedic and others being EMT’s. They have a built well maintained fleet of vehicles.

The North Lawrence VFD wants to take this time to thank everyone for their years of support given to their Bingo program; without it none of this would be possible. From their humble beginnings to the excellent staff and facility they have today, we take pride in being able to tell their story and thank them for their service to the area.

Located at 4052 Alabama Avenue, north of St. Rt. 172 between Dalton and Massillon, the VFD game plays every Friday and Sunday with Early Birds starting at 6:00 p.m. Starting this month they will offer both paper and computer play with a fun program of games for all.

As you can see, it’s a great story of success with a tight connection to those of you who have supported them through the years. But the story doesn't end here and you can be sure that this Bingo will not be going away anytime soon!

Take a drive out to North Lawrence and give their game a try. We know you’ll love it and will put it down on your weekly Bingo schedule.

Go to page 5 to see their new ad.

W.C.H.S. Tickets

game holds three (3) separate jackpots that grow independently of each other and each jackpot grows by $100 every night. Only one box of tickets is played per session, so you need to get there early or lose out.

Along with the Triple Jackpot Keno game, W.C.H.S. Bingo always has a great selection of Instant Tickets and Seal games to play through the evening.

Don't forget that they play the Blazing 7's seal game with huge jackpots. There are still one each of the $20,000, $10,000 and $5,000 winners remaining with hundreds of $599’s and $100’s yet to be hit.

Stop in and check out the W.C.H.S. Bingo game any Friday, Saturday or Sunday night. Doors open at 4:30 p.m. with games starting at 7:00 p.m. They recommend new visitors or players arrive between 6:00 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. and groups of 4 or more call around 4:30 p.m. to reserve appropriate seating.

If you want some extra tickets to play on the off days, just stop by The Butt Hut or Fraternal Order of Eagle Club #2184 in Upper Sandusky and try a few there. Either way it all goes to help out the Wyandot County Humane Society.

eign Wars Ohio Charity. The other 75% goes to their Soldier’s Relief Fund and helps them give assistance locally. The VFW Post also donates to the local schools and their boosters as part of their community support programs.

Although their venue and facilities may be smaller than some of the larger Bingo Halls, they do have the capacity to seat up to 130 players. This smaller venue creates the small-town friendly atmosphere, hence the name “Small Town Bingo”.

Whitehall VFW Bingo does things a little different with Door Prizes that are given out throughout the sessions. You will find that they are always open to suggestions to make their Bingo Operation better.

So, if you want to have some fun playing Bingo and directly help to support local Veterans and their families, along with our schools, then VFW Post 8794 Small Town Bingo is your place to be, because you are not just a player, they treat you like part of the VFW family.

Bingo is played every Sunday with doors open at 4:00 p.m. and bingo starting at 6:00 p.m. You'll find your favorite instant tickets and progressives here, too, with Horse Race and Hog Wild leading the pack.

Their End of Month Drawings feature five (5) $100 prizes and will be held this month on April 27th. Remember, the more you attend the more chances you have to win! (You must be present to win.)

Make sure to bring your appetite as Whitehall VFW boasts of having the "Best Concessions in Town". Hot dogs, hamburgers, fresh cut fries and cheesy fries...sounds good!

If you haven't played here yet it's high time that you do and you'll find out the what the true "Small Town Bingo" is all about. As they say at the Post, "We May Be Small, But We Feel Like Home".

And speaking of Instant's they’ve got more pull tabs than ever with lots of new games and great progressives. As we go to print, the Horse Race game shows four (4) $4,800 jackpots with a fifth one growing behind it at $900. Their Hog Wild game has two (2) jackpots at $1,199 each with a third building at $300. The Cookie Jar is currently growing.

You should always plan on getting to Fireman's Bingo early to get a great seat, playing a few instants and settling in for a great night of bingo. You’ll love it! And when you do, let Bambi and the gang know you heard all about it first in the Bingo Bugle.

Make sure to stop by the game on Saturday, April 19th, to have a chance at some Great Giveaways in celebrating the Easter Holiday.

When is a Cruise Not Just Another Cruise?

When That Cruise is the Bingo Bugle's $100,000 World Championship Bingo Tournament & Gaming Cruise!

Vashon, Washington—We all know that cruise vacations are a great value as well as a fantastic way to visit a host of exotic ports without all the complications of repeatedly packing and unpacking, moving from hotel to hotel, tracking down restaurants for each and every meal, and so on. Aboard a luxury cruise ship, every amenity is taken care for you as your “floating hotel” carries you from port to port and brings your lodging, luggage, meals and entertainment right along with you.

For over three decades, the Bingo Bugle Newspaper Group has teamed with Carnival Cruise Lines to create one of the most unique and exciting cruise vacations available today: The World Championship Bingo Tournament & Gaming Cruise.

The brainchild of newspaper group founder Roger Snowden, the Tournament Cruise remains an unsurpassed world-class event. The Bingo Bugle has awarded more than $2 million in prize money to Tournament participants as the cruise has sailed the eastern and western Caribbean, Mexican Riviera, and Alaskan coast. The cruise has become so successful, in fact, that many companies have joined the Bingo Bugle as co-sponsors of the annual event.

The Tournament Cruise offers every amenity Carnival Cruise Lines has to offer—fine/casual dining, stage shows and other live performances, pools, spas, dance clubs, shopping, casino gaming, and so much more. The ship also docks at many ports during each cruise, offering travelers the opportunity to explore unusual and exotic surroundings.

But what makes the World Championship Bingo Tournament & Gaming Cruise truly unique is the fun-filled, cash-filled Bingo Tournament, which offers days of marathon Bingo play - OVER 100 games --and the opportunity to compete for $100,000 in cash and prizes! Plus, the top cash winner receives free passage on the following year's Tournament Cruise...and there's more!

Participants can also buy into other gaming tournaments including the Sizzling Slots Tournament and the Bingo Bugle Blackjack Tournament! Add to all of this thousands more in optional Early Bird Bingo Games and you can see that with more than $100,000 total prize money at stake, is it any wonder that the World Championship Bingo Tournament & Gaming Cruise grows more and more popular with each passing year.

The upcoming 2025 cruise will be extra special as you'll sail with Carnival cruise ship "Conquest". The ship's 8-day itinerary is one of the best ever sailing from Orlando (Port Canaveral) to Aruba, Bonaire and the Celebration Keys before returning to home port. Save the date for when Carnival Conquest arrives! It truly will be the trip of a lifetime!

Learn more about the 36th Annual World Championship Bingo Tournament & Gaming Cruise by visiting <http://www.bingobugle.com/cruise> or by phoning of your life!!! Starting next month you'll see our new cruise ads that will be spotted throughout the pages of this Bingo Bugle Newspaper.

April is National Pecan Month

The noble pecan is one of my favorite nuts. Maybe it's because I live in the south. I've always felt that pecans were a southern thing, while walnuts were more of a northern favorite. However, I like walnuts too, so what do I know?

Enjoy a few facts about pecans, which may make you seem smarter, but most likely will have people thinking you have an odd obsession with pecans.

- Pecans are a great source of protein, fiber, and healthy fats.
- They contain more antioxidants than any other nut.
- Pecans can help lower cholesterol and reduce the risk of heart disease.
- The American Heart Association considers pecans a heart-healthy food.
- Pecans are the only nut native to North America.

Pecans are a versatile nut. One easy treat I often make is a simple mix of pecans and raisins—a super basic trail mix. Other uses:

- Sprinkle pecans in your favorite salad.
- PECAN PIE!!! I really like pecan pie in case that wasn't obvious.
- Add to just about any cake recipe (and icing).
- Toast in the oven with your favorite spice mix.
- Coat them with something sweet like honey or chocolate.
- Add them to sweet bread recipes like banana bread, pumpkin bread, and zucchini bread.
- Add chopped pecans to your morning oatmeal.
- Pecans are a delightful addition to chicken or tuna salads.

Are you as nuts about pecans as I am? Enjoy National Pecan Month!

Veterans Post

New VA Secretary Doug Collins

Changes are coming fast and furious at the Department of Veterans Affairs. Since these impact many of us, we need to pay attention to what's going on — and who's now in charge.

The VA has a new secretary, Douglas A. Collins, the 12th in the position since the VA was started in 1988. Collins is an Air Force veteran, served as chaplain, has been a Reserve colonel for 23 years and additionally served for two years in the Navy. He served in Iraq and at his confirmation hearing said that he slept next to burn pits for many months. He's an attorney and was a U.S. representative for a Georgia district from 2013 to 2021.

Quite the resume, and the Senate vote to confirm him was fairly strong: 77 to 23.

He's jumped right in, saying he wants to expand the VA's private sector care and figure out how to get rid of employees who aren't doing their job. He stopped the employee teleworking right away, insisting people come back to work, and put a hiring freeze in place until things shake out and they see if there are any vacancies once people decide if they're staying or going. Further, he vowed to fix the $16 billion computer system that's been sitting unfinished for two years.

Sometimes you just want to see a man and hear his voice before you make up your mind about him. Go online to YouTube and look for "Doug Collins opening remarks in Veterans Affairs secretary confirmation hearing."

Watching that video, I liked things about him that have nothing directly to do with the VA and the position he's been given, but instead tell what kind of a man he is. He's been married 36 years, he still has a bracelet a female Airman made for him when he was a flightline chaplain 15 years ago and he thanked his 88-year-old father. In the end, those things matter.

I wish him well.

PICKS OF THE MONTH

A Complete Unknown (R) — Hollywood’s golden boy Timothee Chalamet (Dune: Part Two) transforms into singer-songwriter Bob Dylan in this biopic. The film begins in 1961, when an unknown 19-year-old Bob Dylan makes his trek to New York from Minnesota and becomes part of the emerging folk music scene. On his way to becoming the artist we now know today, Dylan meets a handful of musicians like his idol Woody Guthrie (Scoot McNairy), Pete Seeger (Edward Norton), and Joan Baez (Monica Barbaro), who all play significant roles in his development as an artist. While the film barely made up its budget at the box office despite Chalamet’s ingenious marketing tactics, it received eight Academy Award and three Golden Globe nominations. (Amazon Prime Video)

The Brutalist (R) — This A24 film led by Adrien Brody (Asteroid City) was also a critical darling, snagging 10 Academy Award nominations and giving Brody another shot to land a Best Actor award. The epic period drama follows the heartbreaking story of Hungarian-Jewish Holocaust survivor Laszlo Toth (Brody), who immigrates to the United States after surviving the Buchenwald concentration camp and being separated from his wife and daughter. While he was a respected architect in Europe, Laszlo’s first years in the U.S. are anything but respectable, until a wealthy client hires him for a luxurious construction project. Now with the promise of the American Dream and a chance to be reunited with his family, Laszlo assumes that his struggles have finally been rewarded ... but they’ve only just begun. (Apple TV+)

Matthew Perry: A Hollywood Tragedy (TV-MA) — Best known as Chandler Bing from the iconic TV series Friends, Matthew Perry shocked the world when he was found dead at only 54 inside of his Los Angeles home on Oct. 28, 2023. Since Perry was always open about his struggle with drug addiction, many suspected that an overdose was at play. It was later confirmed to be from a high dose of ketamine that was obtained illegally from two doctors. This documentary, out on Feb. 25, discusses the final days leading up to his tragic death, while also explaining his incredible rise to fame. (Peacock)

Tattoos and Taxes

Most computer errors can be attributed to a similar problem...a screw loose behind the keyboard. - L A Murphy, Computers

Dear readers, I’m still in a foul mood. As I previously related, my laptop crashed and everything disappeared into cyber space, never to return. So, I bought a new one and now I’d like to crash my new one by throwing it into a wall. The older we get, the harder it is to retrain our brains for new techie thingies. My photo editing won’t let me sign in; my Word program is totally different, and I’m losing my mind trying to get this column written with the new program. Woe is me, but enough of my misery. That is, unless I fill you in on our recent cruise to the Caribbean.

Two days before we sailed, my husband had to go to Urgent Care, then the ER, both of whom refused to treat him for a bleed because of his blood thinners; referring him to an ENT doctor the next morning. Then, I fell down the stairs as I got off the boat in Cozumel. It took Bob, two attendants, and a crane to get me up with bruised and bloody knees. Last, the parting gift as we left the ship was a bad case of the flu. We drove straight home and started on Tamiflu and spent a week recuperating. OK, I’m done whining now and will move on to the next topic except for my good news. While I was on the cruise, I won the final game of bingo on the last day. My prize was a free tattoo and another cruise. So, I have a bingo ball with the number one on it tattooed on my butt. That’s real dedication for a bingo lover.

April 10 is National Sibling Day and approximately 80% of us have siblings. Richard, my younger, likes to torment me by sending me lottery scratchers for my birthday that he has totally or partially scratched off. He also likes to tell me the ending of books he’s finished while I’m still reading them. As for my elder, David, our job as kids was to do the supper dishes. We started arguing and he picked up a mustard squeeze bottle and sprayed it all over my face. I screamed, David laughed, and so did my mother. What was up with that as I was the only daughter and my brothers called me the princess. Guess mom forgot and I eventually forgave him. My only regret is that I don’t have a photo of my mustard face.

Lastly, April 15th is Income Tax Day. The first personal income tax was enacted in 1861 to help pay for the Civil War and was finalized by the Constitution’s 16th amendment in 1913: Congress shall have the power to lay and collect taxes on income. Bah humbug. That includes paying a tax on bingo winnings over $600 where I live; also, on lottery winnings, or casino winnings. Again, bah humbug. How appropriate that April 15th is also National That Sucks Day. Until next month, may Lady Luck blow you kisses as you dance out the door with dollars. Win big and April Fool: I did not win a cruise or get a tattoo of a bingo ball on my butt as that would look like a postage stamp on a billboard on my oversized behind. Contact: nlpvzw6172@gmail.com

QUESTIONS

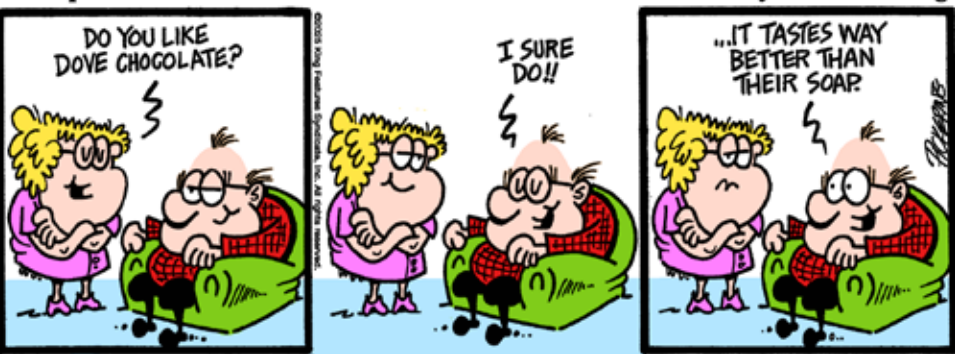

1. Name the town mentioned in “Last Chance to Turn Around.”
2. Who wrote and released “Love Is All Around”?
3. Which group wrote and released “The Tracks of My Tears”?
4. Who wrote “Anticipation”?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: “I know you don’t know what I’m going through, Standing here looking at you.”

ANSWERS

1. Brooklyn, in the 1965 song by Gene Pitney. Besides creating his own hits, Pitney penned chart toppers for others, including the Crystals, Ricky Nelson, Vikki Carr and Roy Orbison.
2. The Troggs, in 1967. The song charted around the globe, but it really took off when Scottish band Wet Wet Wet covered the song for the film and soundtrack Four Weddings and a Funeral. Their version topped the charts nearly everywhere.
3. Smokey Robinson and the Miracles, in 1965. In 2021 it was ranked as “The Greatest Motown Song of All Time.”
4. Carly Simon, in 1971.
5. “Hurt So Bad,” by Little Anthony & The Imperials, in 1964. The song was a hit for the group, especially after they sang it on The Ed Sullivan Show. The song has been covered by numerous others, including The Lettermen and Linda Ronstadt.

One Skillet, Endless Flavor!

One-Pot Lemon Garlic Shrimp and Rice: A Dish That’s Easy, Elegant, and Surprisingly Frugal

Shrimp, once seen as a splurge, has become a frugal choice — not because shrimp prices have dropped, but because everything else has gone up! This seafood favorite is now an economical protein compared to the skyrocketing costs of beef, chicken and even eggs. Pair that with one-pot preparation, and you’ve got dinner that’s easy on your wallet and your schedule.

One-pot recipes streamline prep, cooking and cleanup, leaving you with more time to enjoy your meal and less time spent scrubbing dishes. This dish is fast, flavorful and destined to become a weeknight favorite.

ONE POT LEMON GARLIC SHRIMP

Yield: 4-6 servings

Total Time: 30 minutes

- 16 ounces uncooked shrimp (41-60 size), thawed and peeled
- 1 fresh lemon, see note below*
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 4 cloves garlic, minced
- 1/2 cup red bell pepper, diced
- 2 cups long-grain white rice
- 2 cups chicken broth
- 1 1/2 cup water
- 1 teaspoon Old Bay Seasoning

2 tablespoons chopped parsley (optional)

Prep the Ingredients: If using frozen shrimp, thaw and peel before starting.

*Zest the lemon, reserving the zest. Slice lemon in half, juice half the lemon (about 2 tablespoons juice) and slice the other half for garnish.

Saute the Garlic and Rice: Heat a deep skillet over medium heat. Add butter and garlic, and red pepper, sauteing until fragrant (1-2 minutes). Stir in the rice and continue sauteing for another 1-2 minutes until the rice begins to toast lightly. You might hear a faint crackling sound.

Add Liquid and Seasoning: Carefully pour in the chicken broth, water, lemon juice and half the lemon zest. Stir in the Old Bay and parsley. Give everything a good stir to combine.

Cook the Rice: Cover the skillet with a lid and bring the mixture to a boil over medium-high heat. Once boiling, reduce the heat to low and let it simmer for 12 minutes.

Add the Shrimp: After 12 minutes, most of the liquid should be absorbed. Lift the lid briefly to scatter the shrimp across the top of the rice. Replace the lid and continue cooking on low for 5 minutes.

Let It Rest: Without removing the lid, remove the skillet from the heat. Let it rest for an additional 5 minutes. During this time, the shrimp will finish cooking, becoming pink and opaque.

Fluff and Serve: Gently fluff the rice with a fork, mixing in the shrimp slightly. Garnish with the reserved lemon slices, lemon zest and a sprinkle of fresh parsley, if desired. Serve hot and enjoy!

To save time, use pre-minced garlic or frozen shrimp that’s already peeled.

Want to switch up the flavors? Try Italian seasoning with a sprinkle of Parmesan for a Mediterranean twist, or black pepper and grated Parmesan for a cacio e pepe-style dish.

Craving spice? A dash of Cajun seasoning, or smoked paprika adds a bold kick. For a fresh take, toss in fresh dill and a touch of crumbled feta. Love warm, aromatic flavors? Stir in a pinch of curry powder and a splash of coconut milk for a subtle, creamy depth.

Or go zesty with lime juice, cilantro and a hint of chili for a vibrant, Southwest-inspired version.

The combination of tender shrimp, fluffy rice and bold seasonings — whether it’s zesty lemon and garlic, smoky Cajun spice or a Mediterranean twist — makes this dish a winner. We hope you try your favorite variations and love it as much as we do!!

* “Plastic grocery bags are handy for so many uses, but keeping them organized was always a pain, until I discovered that I could use an empty tissue box to store them. I just ball up each bag individually (so there is no air trapped) and stuff it in the tissue box. You can do the same thing for larger amounts of bags by using an empty 12-pack box from soda. I store one of these in my shop.” — Fred C. from Pennsylvania

* “Tired of squirrels on your bird feeders? String a line of 2-liter soda bottles (as many as you like) together, and hang them between two trees, with the feeder in the middle. Works like a charm.” — C.V. in Maine

* If your kids (or you) like cereal, be sure to save the heavy plastic liners that hold the cereal inside the box. They are really handy when freezing meat patties in stacks. You can use them to separate layers of cookies, too.

* “I just finished packing up my house to move, and this little tip was a dandy: Use a toothpick to keep the open end of your tape from disappearing. When you cut the tape, slip a toothpick at the end that’s still on the roll. You will never have to go fishing for it again.” — L.K. in New Mexico

* If your water takes a minute to warm up, keep a pitcher by the sink. Let the water flow into the pitcher until it gets warm. Then, use that water (that otherwise would have been wasted) on your houseplants and in your garden.

Lucky Lotto News

A Wish Come True
Windsor, Ontario’s Harold Worotny says he got the best birthday present ever picking up his Lotto 6/49 prize worth $1 million in the Gold Ball Draw. But before he did that on Jan. 8, the father of one can credit needing some milk for finding out he’d won. “It was late in the evening when I realized we were out of milk, so I decided to go for a walk to pick some up,” Worotny told lottery officials. “While I was in line to pay, I kept thinking there was something else I needed to do. That’s when it hit me — I needed to check my tickets. When I saw the prize amount, I couldn’t contain my excitement and shouted, ‘I can’t believe it! I just won a million dollars!’ I was completely overcome with happiness. Since it was late, I didn’t want to wake anyone up, so I called just a few people to share the incredible news. My friends and family were thrilled for me.”

Black Sheep Wins Big
A woman who recently won the lottery says she won’t be giving any of the winnings to her family after they excluded her from a group trip. In a post shared to Reddit the anonymous 28-year-old woman writes that she comes from a family of five—her parents, two siblings and her. “Growing up, I was always the ‘black sheep,’” she wrote. “My siblings were the golden children, and while I wasn’t outright ignored, I definitely got the short end of the stick.” Even as an adult, the woman writes, she’s been ostracized—including recently, when her family “planned a big overseas trip” that she found out about via her sister’s Instagram posts. When she confronted her mom, her mom said the budget was tight and she didn’t think she’d want to come. Fast forward a month when the woman bought a lottery ticket on a whim and ended up winning over $2 million. She used the money wisely, paying off debts, making investments, and setting some aside for fun. She didn’t tell her family right away. But after she bought a new car her family began asking questions, and when she told them, they were “furious,” she writes. “My mom said it’s selfish to keep all that money to myself when they’re struggling (news to me, given the vacation). My sister hinted that I should pay for her student loans, and my brother outright asked me to buy him a house,” she writes. Now, the family is calling her an “ungrateful brat” and some Reddit users are commenting her family doesn’t deserve any of the money.

Player’s Luck Doesn’t Run Out
An Arkansas man thought his luck had surely run out after buying two winning lottery tickets with small prizes, but much bigger things were coming his way. James White, of Harrison, was on his way to do laundry when he decided to stop at a gas station in town, lottery officials said. He had already bought two winning tickets, the first worth $500 and the second worth $50, and he doubted he could do much better than that. “I thought that would be the end of my luck,” White said. White says he only buys tickets with winnings from other tickets or loose cash laying around. And with $550 burning a hole in his pocket, he saw no reason not to try his luck one more time. White spent $20 on a third ticket, playing the Frenzy game, officials said. He took it home with him, started scratching it off and by the time he got to the last row, he couldn’t

Understanding Thyroid Health

An estimated 20 million Americans have some form of thyroid disease. YARAL Pharma is raising awareness of thyroid disease, particularly hypothyroidism, a condition in which the thyroid gland does not produce enough thyroid hormone. Despite its prevalence, thyroid disease remains widely misunderstood, with many people unaware of its signs and symptoms.

Thyroid disorders can manifest in various ways, including fatigue, weight changes, mood fluctuations, and cognitive difficulties. These symptoms often resemble common day-to-day ailments, making them easy to overlook. As a result, many patients live with thyroid conditions for years before seeking treatment.

Treatment for thyroid disease varies depending on the type and severity of the condition, as well as the patient’s age and overall health. Some common treatments include antithyroid drugs, radioactive iodine therapy, beta-blockers, surgery, and thyroid hormone replacement.

The thyroid, a small butterfly-shaped gland located in the neck, plays a vital role in regulating metabolism, energy levels, and overall hormonal balance. Conditions such as hypothyroidism, hyperthyroidism, and thyroid nodules can significantly impact health and quality of life. However, up to 60% of individuals with thyroid disease are unaware of their condition, often due to a lack of awareness about the signs and symptoms, leading to delays in diagnosis and treatment.

If you’re experiencing symptoms of thyroid disease or have concerns about your thyroid health, don’t wait—talk to your healthcare provider to learn more about diagnosis and treatment options.

How to Play Against a Dealer’s 9 Upcard

When a dealer shows a 9 upcard in blackjack, they have about a 77% chance of getting to a final hand that totals 17 through 21 and only a 23% chance of busting (depending on the number of decks shuffled). A 9, therefore, is a strong card for the dealer, which means we have to be more aggressive when we are dealt a stiff hand (hit rather than stand) and less aggressive when we are dealt a two-card soft hand (hit rather than double down).

We also should surrender one hand, even when it means we forfeit half our bet. What follows is the accurate playing strategy for any hand when the dealer shows a 9 upcard.

Fortunately for players, the playing strategy against a dealer’s 9 upcard is nearly the same for any number of decks of cards in blackjack or mix of playing rules, with only one exception discussed below.

Notations used in this article:
S17 = Dealer must stand on soft 17
H17 = Dealer must hit soft 17
DAS = Doubling down after pair splitting is allowed NDAS = Doubling down after pair splitting is not allowed
H = Hit
S = Stand
P = Split
Dh = Double down if allowed; otherwise, hit
Rh = Surrender if allowed, otherwise hit

Playing a multi-deck game
Regardless of the playing rules, use the following strategy when facing a dealer’s 9 upcard.

Surrender if allowed, otherwise hit, if holding:

- Hard 16

Double down if allowed; otherwise hit, if holding:

- Hard 10 and 11
- Pair of 5s

Split if holding:

- Pair of As, 8s, and 9s

Hit if holding:

- Hard 5 through 9
- Hard 12 through 15
- A-2 through A-7
- Pair of 2s, 3s, 4s, 6s, and 7s

Stand if holding:

- Hard 17 through 20
- A-8 and A-9
- Pair of 10s

What if you are playing a single- or double-deck game?

The playing strategy for a single- or double-deck game is identical to the above multiple-deck game except for one strategy change:

- Do not surrender hard 16; hit instead.

For more playing strategy tips, consult Chapter 3 in my Ultimate Blackjack Strategy Guide.

"SAVVY SENIOR"

YOU ASK THE SENIOR QUESTION

~ WE FIND THE SAVVY ANSWER
by JIM MILLER

Do You Need a Digital Will?

Dear Savvy Senior,
My wife and I had our estate plan—including a will, power of attorney and advance directive—drawn up about 20 years ago but have recently read that our plan should include a digital will too. What can you tell us about this?
—Almost 80

Dear Almost,
If you or your wife spend much time online, adding a separate digital will document to your estate plan that provides a list of your digital assets would be extremely helpful to your loved ones when you die, not to mention it will help protect your privacy. Here's what you should know.
DO YOU HAVE DIGITAL ASSETS?
The term "digital assets" refers to personal information that is stored electronically on either a computer or an online cloud server account that belongs to an individual. Anyone who uses email, has a PIN code protected cell phone, makes online purchases, or pays bills online has digital assets.

Digital assets generally require a username, a password, or a PIN to access and can be difficult if not impossible to retrieve if someone is incapacitated or passes away.

Creating a digital will (also known as a digital estate plan) will help your loved ones access your electronic devices and online accounts more easily so they can manage your electronic affairs, according to your wishes, after you're gone. This in turn will also protect your digital assets from hackers or fraud, which can happen to dormant accounts after you die.

HOW TO WRITE A DIGITAL WILL
Your first step in creating a digital will is to make an inventory list of your digital assets, which includes everything from hardware to email accounts. Here are a few categories to help kick-start your list:
* Electronic devices (computer, smartphone, tablet, external hard drive).
* Digital files (for photos, videos or documents)
* Financial accounts (like bank and brokerage accounts, credit cards, cryptocurrency).
* Bill paying accounts (utilities, mortgage accounts)
* Social media accounts (like Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, LinkedIn).
* Email accounts (Gmail, Yahoo, Outlook, etc.).
* Cloud-storage accounts (like Google

Cloud, iCloud, Dropbox, Microsoft OneDrive)
* Movie or music streaming services (like Netflix, Hulu, Spotify, Apple Music)
* Online purchasing accounts (like Venmo or PayPal)
* Subscription services (magazines, newspapers, Amazon Prime, etc.).
* Reward programs (travel, stores, etc.).
* Membership organizations (AARP, AAA, etc.).

When making your list, you'll need to include usernames, passwords, PINS, account numbers or security questions for accessing each account. And provide instructions on how you want your assets managed after your death. For example: Do you want certain accounts closed, archived or transferred? Do you want specific files or photos to be deleted or shared with loved ones? Do you want your social media profiles memorialized or deleted? Be clear and specific about your wishes.

You'll also need to appoint a digital executor that you trust to execute your wishes after you die.

Rutgers University offers a Digital Assets Inventory Worksheet that can help you get started.

From a legal perspective, you should know that most states have enacted the Revised Uniform Fiduciary Access to Digital Assets Act (RUFADAA), which legally recognizes digital estates. This law gives your personal representative or executor legally protected access to your online accounts.

Once your digital will is written, store it with your other estate plan documents either in a fireproof safe or file cabinet at home, on your computer hard drive, with your estate planning attorney or online at a reputable digital estate planning service like Everplans.com or Clocr.com. But make sure your executor knows where it is and has access to it.

Also remember to keep your digital will updated regularly when you create any new digital accounts or change passwords.
